Registration and Payment

Given our responsibility to you as a participant on this journey, we want to ask a few questions. No essays needed. Please sit quietly with these questions and allow yourself to perhaps be surprised by your answers.

What is it about this particular Pilgrimage that appeals to you?
How did you know that it was right for you?

What do you anticipate being most difficult for you? How might you prepare yourself for this? What might you do during the trip to help yourself with this?

What are you looking forward to most about this trip?

What's something it'd be good for us to know about you?
